Dear President Robbins and Dean Miller:

This letter transmits the decision of the Council of the Section of Legal Education and Admissions to the Bar of the American Bar Association (the "Council"), adopted at its May 14-15, 2020, meeting, with respect to The University of Arizona James E. Rogers College of Law.

A law school that is approved by the American Bar Association continues in that status unless and until the Council takes formal action to remove that approval.

Please call me if you have any questions.

Sincerely yours,

William E. Adams, Jr.
Managing Director
