VIA ARMATURE

Dr. Julie Funk
Dean
University of Arizona
College of Veterinary Medicine
1580 E Hanley Blvd
Oro Valley, AZ 85737

Dear Dr. Funk:

During its June 8, 2020 conference call, the American Veterinary Medical Association Council on Education received as information, the College's notification that letters of acceptance had been sent to the initial class. Based on progress made in implementing its plan and the admission of its first class, the Council voted to extend provisional accreditation to the University of Arizona College of Veterinary Medicine effective immediately.

As a reminder, the College is still required to submit biannual reports. The College's next biannual report is due July 15, 2020.

For additional information on provisional accreditation see the COE's Policy and Procedures manual at <https://www.avma.org/ProfessionalDevelopment/Education/Accreditation/Colleges/Pages/coe-pp-accreditation-evaluation.aspx>

If you have any questions regarding this action of the Council, please contact Dr. Karen Martens Brandt, Director of the AVMA Education and Research Division at 1-800-248-2862, ext. 6674 or e-mail kbrandt@avma.org.

Sincerely,

Spencer A. Johnston, VMD
Diplomate, American College of Veterinary Surgeons
Chair, Council on Education
